Philosophy Minor (15 Credit Hours)

The minor in philosophy requires a total of five courses for 15 credit hours. It is designed to provide an acquaintance with critical analysis and an appreciation for the philosophical foundation of other disciplines. To complete the minor, students may take any five philosophy courses, at least three at the upper level (300-400 level or permission of minor advisor). Advisors should be made aware of a student's interest in declaring a minor.
