

PRE-LAW

Pre-Law Minor (15 Credit Hours)

This minor provides the pre-law student with a range of courses that introduce legal thinking, acquaints the student with areas where a law background is often used and prepares the student for successful entry into and completion of law school.

Required Courses

Code	Title	Credits
PSC-201	American Government & Economics	3
PHI-204	Logic and Reasoning	3
Select three of the following courses, drawn from at least two of these three domains (Social Sciences, Humanities, Business):		9
SOCIAL SCIENCES Choose up to two courses in this domain
SOC-301	Deviance and Society
SOC-304	Media Literacy
SOC-342	Sociology of Human Rights
SOC-415	Topics in Law, the Person and Society
PSY-365	Psychology and the Legal System
PSY-413	Criminal Behavior
PSY-423	Topics in Law, the Person, and Society
HUMANITIES Choose up to two courses in this domain
ENG-237	Introduction to Literary Criticism
ENG-313	Contemporary Writers
ENG-332	Great Writing II
HIS-211	The United States and the World
HIS-323	Founding the American Republic 1763-1800
HIS-328	Twentieth Century America 1945-Present
HIS-330	History of Constitutional Law
IMA-236	Writing for Social Justice
PHI-103	Ethics: Religious and Philosophical Perspectives
PHI-306	Social & Political Philosophy
PHI-336	Problems in Professional Ethics
PSC-250	International Relations
PSC-350	International Relations
PSC-450	International Relations
BUSINESS Choose up to two courses in this domain
LAW-303	Business Law I
LAW-304	Business Law II
ECO-201	Macroeconomics
MGT-304	Communicating in Organizations
MGT-305	Principles of Management
Total Credits		15

The pre-law student is expected to take four writing intensive courses from the above list or in the general curriculum. The minor also includes recommendations for an LSAT (Legal Scholastic Aptitude Test) preparation course and a legal writing/research course, both offered elsewhere through continuing education. Students will be assigned a pre-law advisor with access to information on law schools and the LSAT examination.