

GRADUATE TRANSFER CREDIT POLICY

Students may transfer up to nine graduate credits with grades of B or better into their program at the discretion of the Program Director or Chair. Credits must be from an accredited institution in courses appropriate to the program being pursued.

Some programs may allow for additional credits to transfer in. Please refer to the individual program policies and handbooks for more information.